

LGBTI people with disability & implementation of the CRPD

Tuesday 12 June

Conference Room 4

6:30-8pm

The event will be International Sign Language Interpreted and use Captioning at Real Time (CART)

The event explores the intersection between disability and sexual orientation, gender identity and intersex status, the emerging response of the Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities to this intersection, and the role of States Parties in ensuring that LGBTI people with disability are not left behind.

Opening Remarks:

The Honourable Kirsty Duncan

Minister of Science and Minister of Sport and Persons with Disabilities, Government of Canada

Facilitator:

Colin Allen

Chair, International Disability Alliance

Speakers:

Theresia Degener

Chair, Committee of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities

Clifton Cortez

World Bank Group, Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity (SOGI) Global Advisor

Alastair McEwin

Disability Discrimination Commissioner, Australian Human Rights Commission

Matthew Bowden

Co-Chief Executive Officer, People with Disability Australia

Margherita Coppolino

President, National Ethnic Disability Alliance

Paul Calcott

National Projects Manager, First Peoples Disability Network Australia

Hosted by:

Sponsors:

International Disability Alliance

Australian Human Rights Commission

Government of Canada

Gouvernement du Canada