Persons with disabilities participate in the High-Level Political Forum (HLPF) 2016

IDA, and in partnership with IDDC and other disability movements and organisations worldwide, persons with disabilities actively engaged and contributed to the HLPF 2016, being recognised as the Stakeholder Group of Persons with Disabilities.

- During HLPF 2016, 22 leading disability rights advocates from around the world attended the events at the UN in New York.
- Persons with disabilities were invited by the President of ECOSOC to deliver remarks at the official opening of the HLPF.
- Persons with disabilities were key participants in a number of side events during the HLPF, covering inclusive education, data desegregation by disability, tackling inequalities, and ending violence against children.
