• Parallel Reports submitted to the CRPD Committee

A Coalition of organisations representing the interests of persons with disabilities in the Czech Republic has recently submitted a parallel report to the Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities providing information on how the Czech Republic complies with the CRPD. The report covers the main areas of life of people with disabilities that are affected by legislation or practices that violate the respective articles of the Convention and also includes recommendations on how the situation could be improved.

• UNPRPD MDTF

On 9 December 2011, UNDP, OHCHR, DESA, WHO, ILO and UNICEF jointly launched, in New York, the UN Partnership on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (UNPRPD), a Multi-Donor Trust Fund (MDTF) on disability rights to support the inclusion of the rights of persons with disabilities within the work of the UN at country level. Diane Richler, IDA Chair, was one of the speakers at this launch, which was hosted by the Australian mission, whose ambassador Gary Quinlan moderated the opening part of the event.

The launch ended with a technical session which included a detailed presentation on the future functioning of the MDTF. The Fund will have a Policy Board, which includes the IDA Chair, and a Management Committee which will also include an IDA representative.

• Aid Effectiveness

The Fourth High Level Forum on Aid Effectiveness took place in Busan (Korea) from 29 November to 1 December 2011. During this Forum, donor and partner countries agreed on a Global Partnership for Development Effectiveness as a follow up to the Paris declaration for aid effectiveness (2005) and the Accra Agenda for Action (2008).

The High Level Forum included a side event on aid effectiveness and persons with disabilities, which included an IDA representative as one of its speakers. The outcome document includes international commitments on human rights and disability. IDA will now work to ensure that the rights of persons with disabilities are fully taken into account in the follow-up actions to this Forum.

• Adoption of new Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child establishing a complaints mechanism

On 19 December, the UN General Assembly adopted the new Optional Protocol to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) establishing a complaints mechanism for children. The Optional Protocol allows individual children to submit complaints regarding specific violations of their rights under the Convention and its first two optional protocols. Upon receiving a complaint, the Committee on the Rights of the Child will examine it to determine whether the Convention has been violated. The Committee will guarantee that child-sensitive procedures and safeguards are put in place to prevent the manipulation of the child by those acting on their behalf under the Protocol. The Protocol opens for signature in 2012 and will enter into force upon ratification by 10 States.

Upcoming Meetings

- The Committee on the Rights of the Child will be meeting from 16 January to 3 February 2012 for its 59th session during which it will examine the reports of Azerbaijan, Cook Islands, Madagascar, Myanmar, Niue Islands, Thailand and Togo.
