

2nd IDA Global Survey on Participation of Organisations of Persons with Disabilities

LINK TO THE SURVEY

The International Disability Alliance (IDA) launched its 2nd Global Survey on participation of Organizations of Persons with Disabilities (OPDs).

Why? As world leaders took commitments to 'Leave no one behind' and are making plans to build back better after the COVID-19 pandemic, persons with disabilities and their representative organizations should be part and shape inclusive programs and policies that advance our rights.

The 1st IDA Global Survey showed that participation is not yet sufficient and identified barriers as well as facilitators. Our recommendations contributed to generate more actions to engage with OPDs, for example from the UN system. The disability rights movement needs to keep defining what it means for us to be meaningfully involved.

What? This 2nd IDA Global Survey is a tool to capture OPDs' perceptions of their participation with national governments and international partners.

It is a tool to monitor that 'Nothing about us is done without us' and Article 4.3 and 32 of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD).

Is the voice of OPDs included? When it is, is it actually taken into account? Do women with disabilities, persons with disabilities from most marginalized groups such as persons with deafblindness, persons with psychosocial disabilities, indigenous persons with disabilities have equal opportunities?

Who? We want to hear from the diversity of disability activists in OPDs around the world, active at the local, national, regional and global level. The survey can be filled by all volunteers, staffs, board members. There can be more than one response per OPD.

How? The 2nd IDA Global Survey is hosted on iData, an online accessible survey platform developed and tested with persons with disabilities. It includes accessible features such as read aloud, activating video in International Sign, changing contrast or getting word definitions. The Survey is available in Arabic, Chinese, French, English, Russian, Spanish, and International Sign.
